

COLLEGIATE DIRECTOR QUICK GUIDE

director of DG Dialogues

Chapters with more than 35 members should have a director of DG Dialogues, though smaller chapters may also choose to have this position. They report to the vice president: programming and serve on the joint chapter management team (JCMT) and the Retention Committee. The director of DG Dialogues implements the DG Dialogues programs. After the New Member Pursuit, promoting our educational and cultural interests doesn't end! These programs help chapter members feel supported and continue to grow throughout their collegiate experience.

WHAT ARE THE DG DIALOGUES REQUIREMENTS?

Chapters are to complete four programs over the course of the academic year, one in each value of Article II. The programs are completed by the entire chapter, but in small groups of 10-15. Each small group is led by a facilitator, so ensure your facilitators are well trained utilizing the guidelines in the DG Dialogues Program Guide. Select facilitators who are respected and can listen and encourage conversation. Consider members who are education majors or peer facilitators on campus within other organizations.
