- b) Kevin O'Neill, Lambda Chi Alpha
- c) Dave Westol, Theta Chi

DG TRIVIA | ROUND 4

Answer 2:

b) Kevin O'Neill, Lambda Chi Alpha

Deeper Dive

In 2011 Kevin O'Neill, the founder and first president of the FSPAC and member of Lambda Chi Alpha became the first recipient of Delta Gamma's Compass Award.

The Compass Award is given to a non-member of Delta Gamma Fraternity who, through his/her extraordinary leadership and service, has made a lasting and deeply significant contribution to the Fraternity and/or the interfraternal community. The award may be given to recognize a single "life changing" achievement, or it may commemorate a "lifetime" of important achievements. Recipients of this award display fraternally-focused leadership on an elite scale.

DG TRIVIA | ROUND 4

Question 3:

Which was the first established alumnae chapter?

- a) Lincoln, Nebraska chapter, chartered May 5, 1895
- b) Akron alumnae chapter, chartered in 1908
- c) Alumnae of Theta (II) chapter in Cleveland, chartered in 1888

DG TRIVIA | ROUND 4

Answer 3:

c) Alumnae of Theta (II) chapter in Cleveland, chartered in 1888

Deeper Dive

Theta II-Adelbert (now Case Western) was closed in 1888 when the college decided it would no longer admit women. The members of this chapter conceived the idea of forming an alumnae chapter in order to remain part of the actual organization of the Fraternity. The Delta Gamma Convention body voted to allow the chapter to continue as the first alumnae chapter. At the time, the Constitution of Delta Gamma did not provide for alumnae chapters, so an article providing for them was incorporated in 1897. This chapter is still in existence and is now known as the Cleveland West alumnae chapter.
