Faculty Award

The Faculty Award was established in 1998 to recognize teaching excellence of faculty who teach undergraduate courses. The award recognizes the ability to challenge, support and stimulate students. Devotion to the personal and professional development of students is a key factor. Faculty awards can be sponsored by individuals or groups in honor or memory of a Delta Gamma or loved one. This award offers a means to reward deserving faculty and further strengthen the strong ties between Delta Gamma and college and university communities. Recipients receive an unrestricted grant. Application forms are due to Executive Offices by February 15 (during Convention years only) and can be completed online through SmarterSelect.

Patricia Peterson Danielson Award (PPD)

Established in 1984 and funded by Mr. Donald C. Danielson in honor of his Delta Gamma wife, Patricia Peterson Danielson, Theta-Indiana University, the PPD Award serves as an incentive for excellence, encouraging chapters to “reach for the stars” in meeting the Fraternity’s Standards for Excellence. It is not a competition between chapters as there is no limit to the number of chapters who may receive the award each year. The award is a prerequisite to be considered for the Outstanding Chapter Award given at each Convention. Outstanding Chapter Award recipients must receive the PPD Award both years of the biennium.

Receiving the PPD Award is a great achievement for any chapter, but the ultimate goal is to promote overall growth and improvement within chapters. Mrs. Danielson’s personal philosophy of “Your own self at your very best all of the time” is deeply reflected in the award as chapters and individuals strive to achieve specific goals and standards.

Application forms are due to Executive Offices by December 1 every year and can be downloaded from the Delta Gamma website.

Frankie Ladley Wakefield Parnassus Award

The Frankie Ladley Wakefield Parnassus Award is presented annually to one collegiate chapter and two runners-up. This scholarship recognition will be awarded to chapters that have exhibited an extraordinary level of intellectual curiosity and integrity while maintaining excellence in overall scholastic programming and performance during the previous year.

To be considered for this honor, chapters must have maintained a 3.00 GPA for each of the terms within the school year previous to the award year. The depth and breadth of chapter scholarship programming, participation in philanthropic activities and timely reporting will be considerations. The Regional Collegiate Specialists, Fraternity Director of Collegiate Programming, Director of Awards and the Council Trustee: Fraternity Programming will judge the applications.

The award has been permanently funded by a gift to the Delta Gamma Foundation by Frankie Ladley Wakefield, Alpha Eta-Whitman. The winner and runners-up receive a monetary gift and a plaque or certificate in recognition of their achievement. It was Mrs. Wakefield's wish to encourage collegians to pursue a lifelong interest in education, culture and the arts, and volunteer service.

This award will be presented at Convention (even years), and at Founders Day celebrations (odd years). Chapters do not submit an application for this award.
