

COLLEGIATE DIRECTOR QUICK GUIDE

director of interfraternal activities

Chapters with more than 35 members should have a director of interfraternal activities, though smaller chapters may also choose to have this position. They report to the vice president: Panhellenic and serve on the joint chapter management team (JCMT). Depending on chapter size and structure, this position also directs an interfraternal activities committee. They are responsible for planning activities for the chapter that help the chapter interact with other organizations.

DIVE DEEPER

- What does "interfraternal" mean? A relationship or event between two or more sororities and/or fraternities.
- Want to build a relationship with another group on campus? A little goes a long way: try taking a fun sisterhood event, and also invite another group to participate.
- Use surveys to evaluate! Poll your chapter to find out what activities they enjoy.
- Questions? Check in regularly with your region's Panhellenic Support Specialist (PSS).
