

Positional Statement on Contextualization

Delta Gamma embraces organizational contextualization efforts and rejects past attitudes that do not reflect who we are today, nor the core values upon which we were founded. As we confront and explore our past to gain a comprehensive understanding of our membership throughout our history, we seek to address social injustice using honest and open dialogue to help forge a vibrant, inclusive future for the Fraternity while recognizing our history in a contextual manner.