

HONOR BOARD SANCTION TERMS GUIDE

No Sanction

You remain in good standing with your chapter and the Fraternity.

Warning

You remain in good standing with your chapter and the Fraternity.

Probation

The terms of probation are as follows:

- Forfeiture of your vote in chapter meetings with the exception of vote to initiate;
- Forfeiture of your elected or appointed office;
- Loss of social privileges with the exception of anchored (mandatory) events;
- Must attend all anchored (mandatory) events; and,
- Must meet all financial obligations to Delta Gamma Fraternity.

If you do not uphold the terms of your probation, a Statement of Obligation Review (SOR) will be filed with the chapter Honor Board and your membership in the Fraternity will be reviewed. Membership in Delta Gamma is a privilege, and one that I hope you continue to honor.

Delay of Initiation

Delta Gamma is a lifelong commitment and one that should not be taken lightly. Each member makes a commitment to our Fraternity to uphold all laws, policies and procedures and to strive to uphold our high standards and ideals. Failure to uphold these standards will result in a recommendation of expulsion or expiration of calendar year, per the National Panhellenic Conference policies.

The terms of your Delay of Initiation are as follows:

- You must attend all anchored (mandatory) events; and,
- You must strive to live by the high standards and ideals of Delta Gamma.

Officer Removal

Unless other penalties apply, you remain in good standing with your chapter and the Fraternity. Please ensure that any handbooks and officer materials are delivered to the vice president: social standards within 48 hours of this letter.
