Delta Gamma Foundation 2022-2025 Board of Trustees Slate

April 11, 2022

Dear Delta Gammas,

In accordance with the Foundation Constitution, the Governance Committee shall present to the Delta Gamma Foundation Board of Trustees and the voting membership at least one, but not limited to one, candidate for each vacancy on the Board of Trustees by April 15 prior to an Annual Meeting. The Governance Committee met virtually April 8-10, 2022, and is pleased to present the following candidates.

The candidates for the two vacancies are:

2022-2025 Trustee Term Danielle Consentino D'Arcy, Gamma Pi-Roanoke Chicago (city) alumnae chapter

Danielle D'Arcy is a vice president at Goldman Sachs within the Wealth Management Division in Chicago. She provides stewardship and investment leadership to multi-generational families, entrepreneurs, business executives, private foundations, new and sophisticated investors, and venture capitalists. Before Goldman Sachs, Danielle held several senior strategy roles at the University of Chicago Booth School of Business and the University of South Carolina's College of Social Work and Darla Moore School of Business, working with Fortune 100 financial executives and global leaders.

Danielle extends her leadership as finance chair for Eversight, a not-for-profit organization working to restore sight and prevent blindness through the healing power of donation, transplantation and research, and as a member of the President's Advisory Board of Roanoke College. Additionally, Danielle remains committed as a volunteer and mentor with Delta Gamma Fraternity to empower women of all ages to live to the utmost standards of intention and service. Her involvement with Delta Gamma has evolved since joining the Gamma Pi chapter in 2002, having served the Fraternity as a Collegiate Development Consultant/Expansion Consultant (Eta Xi-Texas, Tyler), Collegiate Recruitment Specialist (Eta Pi-DePaul), and Council Appointed Coordinator (Eta Sigma-Charleston

She is also a member of the alumni association of Massanutten Military Academy as a JROTC graduate. Danielle received a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from Roanoke College and successfully completed the Executive Program for Emerging Leaders at the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. As an outdoor enthusiast, she finds deep fulfillment and introspection while adventuring in the woods, summiting at high altitudes, appreciating the gifts of all bodies of water and chasing upland birds with her birddog, Cody. Danielle's pursuit to do good is galvanized by Mary Oliver's question, "What is it you plan to do / With your one wild and precious life?"

2022-2025 Trustee Term

Jill Elizabeth Roshto, Gamma Zeta-Louisiana State

Baton Rouge alumnae chapter

Jill Roshto has over 30 years of experience in retail management, corporate sales, business ownership, fundraising and non-profit management. She is the president of Jill Roshto, LLC, a business consulting firm and is currently serving as executive director of Louisiana Alliance for Nonprofits. Jill is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana and has a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Business Administration from Louisiana State University.

In her varied career, Jill worked in multiple roles at Lee Michaels Fine Jewelry, the LSU Stephenson Entrepreneurship Institute, LSU Foundation, as CEO of Cancer Services of Greater Baton Rouge, and the Pennington Biomedical Research Foundation. She also owned The Keeping Room, a stationery and gift business.

Jill has been very involved in community service, serving on numerous non-profit boards and as a member of the Junior Leagues of Baton Rouge, Lafayette and San Antonio and currently serves as a sustaining advisor to the Junior League of Greater Baton Rouge. She has been very involved with Gamma Zeta-Louisiana State for over twenty years, serving as Advisory Team Chairman and membership adviser for many years. Jill has served as co-adviser for Gamma Zeta's Lectureship in Values and Ethics since the chapter met Dr. Martin's fundraising challenge, and she was proud to assist the chapter in hosting their sixth Lectureship featuring former LSU football star and Super Bowl Champion, Tyrann Mathieu to a great crowd, on April 5, 2022. Currently, Jill is serving as Foundation adviser for Gamma Zeta and as vice president of the Gamma Zeta House Corporation.

Her passions include LSU sports (Geaux Tigers!), reading, exercising, live music, Broadway theater, traveling and spending time with friends and family.

Thank you for submitting names of qualified alumnae members and for providing valuable information through your nomination forms and the confidential Evaluation Survey. We listened closely to your recommendations. The Committee also studied the Trustee nominee applications, recommendation letters and conducted interviews with nine (9) qualified nominees. This wealth of information provided the basis for our deliberations.

Per Article VII, Section 2 of the Delta Gamma Foundation Constitution, any two (2) participants of the Foundation may submit a nomination by filing the required forms with the Executive Director of the Delta Gamma Foundation by 2 p.m. PT/5 p.m. ET, 14 days after the Slate is presented, which is April 25, 2022. The participants of the Foundation consist of all initiated members of the Delta Gamma Fraternity.

The required forms include:

- A single letter signed by two participants of the Foundation or two (2) separate letters signed by the participants.
- Trustee application form
 - Please contact Leslie Martin, Foundation Executive Director, at leslie.martin@deltagamma.org for additional information.

Such nominations and qualifications shall be presented in the same manner as the Governance Committee Slate and shall be included in any communications sent prior to the Annual Meeting. There shall be no nominations from the floor.
