Delta Gamma The Pursuit FAQ

What is The Pursuit?
The Pursuit is Delta Gamma's eLearning platform. We'll use The Pursuit for all virtual Delta Gamma training and education.

What is eLearning?
eLearning is any learning content delivered electronically. Delta Gamma's eLearning platform is called The Pursuit.

What is functional training?
Functional training refers to training provided to help someone fulfill the duties and responsibilities of their Delta Gamma role.

What is a learning management system?
A learning management system (LMS) serves as the host/platform of eLearning content. An LMS:
- Is accessed through a web browser.
- Helps organizations manage training events, self-paced courses and blended learning programs.
- Provides automation that replaces rigorous and expensive manual work, saves time and enables organizations to organize content, data and learners.
- Tracks and reports on training activity and results.

The Pursuit

What training exists inside The Pursuit for CMT officers?
There are four types of courses in the Pursuit for CMT officers:
1. Cable Courses: General training for all CMT officers .
2. Bronze Courses: Launch in January.
3. Pink Courses: Launch in March.
4. Blue Courses: Launch in September.

Bronze, Pink and Blue courses are specific to each officer role and help equip officers to succeed in their job tasks at that specific time.

When do I complete Pursuit courses?
Pursuit courses are completed on-demand and on your own time. Here are some deadlines to keep in mind:
- Bronze Courses: Completed before attending Collegiate Leadership Collective in February.
- Pink Courses: Completed before summer begins.
- Blue Courses: Completed before officer elections begin.

Progress reports will be shared with regional teams.
