

The Compass Award Application

The Compass Award is given to a non-member of Delta Gamma Fraternity who, through his/her extraordinary leadership and service, has made a lasting and deeply significant contribution to the Fraternity and/or the interfraternal movement. The award may be given to recognize a single "life changing" achievement, or it may commemorate a "lifetime" of important achievements. Recipients of this award display fraternally-focused leadership on an elite scale.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

For consideration for nomination, an individual must demonstrate or have demonstrated:

- Unique, rare and truly remarkable advocacy for the significant value that Greek-letter organizations offer its members and communities in the world today;
- Exceptional vision, passion and pride for the fraternity and sorority experience not seen in typical fraternal leadership;
- A proven commitment to fostering leadership, friendship, respect and progress among Greek-letter organizations, colleges/universities, non-Greek entities and other public/private parties;
- "...a true sense of social responsibility and the best qualities of character" through his/her actions, work and affiliations; and
- The vision and leadership for creating future solutions that sustain fraternities and sororities for generations to come.

SELECTION PROCESS

Nominees will be considered by the Council of Delta Gamma Fraternity on a rolling basis. Nominations may come from Council members directly or any member of Delta Gamma Fraternity. More than one award may be granted in a calendar year if there are multiple qualified nominees.

Council will make the final selection(s). The winner(s) may be announced at Convention if it is feasible and/or desirable to do so.
