

Human Dignity Promise

I PROMISE I will treat all members and new members of Delta Gamma with respect and dignity at all times.

I UNDERSTAND the moral integrity of the chapter is inseparable from the conduct of its members.

I PROMISE to always bring honor to my chapter through my activities.

I PROMISE I will not perform any act or tradition that will endanger the physical, mental or emotional well-being of a new member or member of Delta Gamma.

I PROMISE I will not encourage or suggest the violation of any local, state, provincial or national law, or any campus policy.

I PROMISE I will not impose a menial or personal task on any member or new member of Delta Gamma.

I PROMISE I will not suggest or perform a task that could be considered mentally, physically or emotionally degrading to any woman, regardless of its location, intent or consent of the participants.

I PROMISE I will not embarrass myself or my Fraternity by participating in required stunts, costumes, harassment, interrogations, line-ups, kidnapping, personal services, drinking or eating on command or depriving myself of sleep or food.

I UNDERSTAND that Delta Gamma Fraternity believes in the integrity and dignity of women, human decency, human rights, gracious living and positive reinforcement of each other.

I UNDERSTAND that any violation of this promise can result in one's removal from office and in a review of one's membership.

I PROMISE to be loyal to this promise and to be a supportive friend, exercising kindness and compassion.

I PROMISE to stop being a bystander and start always standing up for what I believe in.
