Columbus, Ohio [November 18, 2024]— Delta Gamma Fraternity is thrilled to announce the establishment of a chapter at Northeastern University (NU) in spring 2025.

The establishment will be the 205th chapter installed throughout Delta Gamma's 150-years of history. Upon installation, the chapter will be named Theta Eta-Northeastern.

Fraternity Executive Director Tracey Doebling Williams, Beta Sigma-Maryland, said "We are thrilled to join Northeastern's community. When we presented, I was able to spend time with administrators, staff, Panhellenic students and local alumnae and I knew this would be a community where the Do Good Sisterhood would thrive and make an impact. We are so impressed with the support from the Panhellenic women. I am so excited for Delta Gamma to establish at NU and for our future sisters who will get to experience such a wonderful community."

Established in 1898, the Boston campus is one of Northeastern's three residential campuses and the heart of their global research enterprise. Northeastern is renowned for their experiential learning model, high-impact research, deep partnerships and worldwide reach.
